

To make a mobile,
consider invisible
thread or fishing line. I use the inner hoop of an embroidery hoop.

Unfold, trace, cut, sew!

I encountered it on Elizabeth Hartman.com
and thought it would be cute if started. But I also wanted one with wings raised. So I played with graph paper until I made these patterns. With external stitching, it's got a country Halloween feel.

This pattern was inspired by the following block from the Nancy Cabot Block
Index. October 19, 1935.

In college, I learned
the delightful word
Fledermaus.

I used to draw flying mice on friends' whiteboards to indicate I'd been by.

Fledermaus

A zine pattern for 2 flying stuffed bats

Fledermaus
Ruth Tillman
uncopyright 2018
ruthtillman.com/patterns

You Need:

- ~ 24" x 8" of fabric
(or 2 12" x 8")
- needle • thread
- stuffing • paper
- 1-2 pins • scissors

Steps: 1. Trace pattern ✓

2. Using 12" x 8" piece of fabric, fold in half (6" x 8"). Place pattern against fold line, Pin. Cut. Repeat. Do not cut fold.

3. With wrong sides together, stitch around lines indicated on pattern.

The pattern will not be turned inside out.

4. Stuff

5. Stitch closed. Add more stuffing while closing, as needed.

You've got a bat!

